Miscellaneous.

Hear Ye! Hear Ye! Hear Ye!!
THE subscriber having taken the agency for the sale of Burdett and Bartlett's Grecian Chaulichong Oil Polish, is now prepared to furnish the article to store keepers
at Manufacturer's prices.
This article is composed of neat foot oil and Gutta Percha, acting as a preserver of leather as well as polish. An article of this kind has long been needed, as every one knows that common blacking will not polish oil or leather.
The attention of livery stable keepers, and those keeping carriages and harnesses, is invited to this article, as it is unsurpassed for the purpose of cleaning carriage tops, harnesses, &c. It is put up in large size boxes, convenient for the use of livery stable keepers, and also smaller sizes for the use of everybody who wishes to purchase the best blacking
in the market.

SOLOMON T. HUBBARD,
Wholesale & Retail agent,
112 Cor. Washington Sq. and Thames st.

UNDERTAKERS.
COFFINS and other funeral appurtenances.—The subscribers have on hand and will make at short notice coffins of every description of wood and finish; also robes, trimmings, &c., and if desired they will superintend funeral arrangements and furnish all articles connected with and used on these mournful occasions.
They have also a method of preserving a corpse for any desirable length of time, until friends and relatives can arrive from Europe or distant parts of our own country.
If required they can give the best of references as to their mode of attending to matters of this kind.
Orders for the whole or part of these arrangements are solicited, and will be promptly executed, with the utmost regard for the feelings of those concerned.
Jy19-21 T. L. & G. A. HAZARD.

NEW MAP OF NEWPORT.—The subscriber has now nearly ready for publication an entirely new map of Newport Township, including a large part of Middletown.
Showing all the Island South of Coddington Cove, and from Castle Hill on the West, to Sachuest Point on the East. The whole made from recent surveys hitherto unpublished.
It will be the only topographical map of the Township yet made, and is of sufficient size to allow the position of every house to be indicated, and the names given of all the land holders without the limits of the City.
The copy prepared for engraving, is now ready for inspection and corrections, as it is my wish to make it much nearer a correct map than any yet issued.
The price $5. The size about 36 1/4 inches Subscriptions will be received at 124 Thames street by CHAS. E. HAMMETT Jr.

CITY STEAM BAKERY.
205 Thames street.
Nearly opposite Kinsley's Express Office.
I WISH to return my sincere thanks to my numerous customers for their very liberal support since carrying on the above business, and assure them that nothing shall be wanting to merit their future favors. I have engaged in order to have French bread and rolls of the genuine kind, likewise all other kinds of bread of the best quality. Also a great variety of cakes, pies, soda biscuits, wine and water crackers, butter and Boston crackers, pie-crust and pilot bread, of the best quality and at the lowest prices. Wholesale and retail. j17 I. T. BOSS.

THE Glycerine Cream, made principally of pure Glycerine, is unquestionably the finest preparation yet made, for all external inflammations. For chills, chapped lips, face or hands, salt rheum and excoriations, cold cream, &c., &c. It is colorless, nearly odorless, is almost without grease,
and being innocent and palatable, can be used with great benefit and entire safety upon sore or inflamed nipples. Prepared and

AMERICAN AND FOREIGN PATENTS
R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of PATENTS (Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 STATE, OPPOSITE KILBY ST., BOSTON.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France and other foreign countries.
Caveats, Specifications, Bonds, Assignments
all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions, and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unapproached if not immeasurably superior to any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below give proof that none is MORE successful AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services moderate.
The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer
superior facilities for obtaining patents.
All necessity of journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay
there are here saved inventors.

TESTIMONIALS.
"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."
OLAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.
"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration
at the Patent Office."
EDWARD BURKE, Esq.
Late Commissioner of Patents.
Boston, February 6, 1859.

"Mr. R. P. Eddy was made for me THIR-TEEN applications, on all but one of which patents have been granted, and that one is now pending. Such unmistakable proof of great talent and ability on his part leads me to recommend all inventors to apply to him to procure their patents, as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
From Sept. 17th, 1857, to June 7th, 1858,
the subscriber, in course of his large practice, made, on twice rejected applications, SIX was decided in his favor, by the Commissioner of Patents.

MISCELLANY.

OUR NEW HOUSE.
BY L. AUGUSTUS JONES.

"No, sir," I replied. "I do not exactly hide. I only come here to mu-c, or commune with my own sad thoughts."

him Ralph now) he had made no promise I would take a ride with him on Wednesday afternoon through the country a short distance. We parted at the garden gate. I stood and watched him until he was far down the road, and I walked towards the house. When I entered I found that the tea-table had been cleared, and so I went to the kitchen to get my supper. Betsey, good soul, had everything prepared and waiting for me there. I had but partly finished eating, when my sister entered the room. "Well, Bell," she exclaimed, in a voice unusually kind, "you have been a good girl to-day."

"I am glad you think so," I replied. "I do, and I'll make you a nice present when I am Mrs. Deville, for you kept out of the way the whole afternoon."

As she uttered these words, she walked with stately step from the kitchen, while I smiled. I soon retired to my chamber after finishing my meal, and there in solitude I thanked God for the new light that had dawned upon me—the light of Love. I sought my couch with a happy heart, and fell asleep with fairy visions floating around my pillow.

I dreamed, and my dreams were sweet. I dreamed of him who loved me; I was roaming with him in a lovely garden in a sunny olive, where everything was beautiful to gaze upon. Birds of gay plumage filled the air with song; delicate roses and pale white lilies, strewn by an invisible hand, lay in my path; soft strains of bewitching music floated round, and the tinkling murmur of fashing fountains echoed harmoniously in my ear. Bright land of dreams!

CHAPTER III.
Oh, give me the cottage, the vines, and the flowers,
The sweet little garden, the birds and the flowers;
The one that I love, in whom I confide,
To be my protector, my guardian, and guide.
I will work in the garden and hear the birds' song,
And thus the bright hours shall glide sweet along;
And as time passes by, more happy shall be
The one that I love, and the cottage for me.

You know, kind reader, that on Wednesday I had promised I would take a ride with Ralph Deville. Well, Wednesday came, and neither my father, mother, or sister, knew anything about the engagement I had made. I went up to my room early, and dressed myself with greater care than I usually did. Ralph was to call for me at ten o'clock. I sat gazing out of my chamber window, when I saw (just as the clock struck ten) a carriage drawn by a prancing pair of bays coming rapidly up the road. In from the box, opened the door, let down the steps, and in another moment Ralph alighted and was coming through the garden toward the house. I put on my hat, and then throwing a light crape shawl round my form, I was prepared to go down.

I soon heard Ralph's footsteps below, and immediately hastened down stairs to meet him. As I entered the parlor, I saw he was conversing with sister, who had been making some remarks about the horses, that stood pawing the ground and champing their bits proudly.

"Yes," I heard Ralph exclaim, "that is a splendid team; I have just purchased them. I gave one thousand dollars for them. I intend to marry soon and go North, where I have a handsome residence."

"You are trying their speed, I suppose," said Rachel.

"Yes, Ah, here you are!" exclaimed Ralph, as I entered; "all ready in time—so we may as well be off. Good day, Rachel, I shall bring Bell back safe!" and bowing low, he offered me his arm and we departed.

When we were seated in the carriage, Ralph burst into a loud laugh. I inquired what amused him so much.

"Ha! ha! ha!—only just look!—ha! ha! ha! at Rachel, and see how mad she is!—ha! ha! oh!—dear me, I can't help it!" and he leaned back in his seat and fairly shook with merriment.

I looked toward the house, and I had to laugh, too, for there stood my mother. Rachel in front of her, stamping her foot and gesticulating violently. I was ashamed, but Ralph did not appear to notice it, and so I did not care.

"Shall I drive on, master?" inquired the African, who sat grinning and holding in the impatient horses.

"Yes, Sam."

Away we went in an instant, leaving a cloud of dust floating behind us. Didn't we have a glorious ride. I never enjoyed anything more in my life; and we did not reach home until six o'clock that evening. When Ralph and I entered the house, my mother and Rachel were sitting at the tea table. My father looked very much pleased. My mother and Rachel looked very much displeased. Ralph and I had a very pleasant surprise for them, and for you, too, reader. Ralph and I had it all planned. He took me by the hand, led me forward toward the table, and said:

"My friends, allow me to introduce to you my wife, Mrs. Deville!"

The Railroad.

Much anxiety is felt and expressed, among our citizens, in relation to the proposed extension of the Old Colony and Fall River Railroad to this city. We wish it were in our power to allay this feeling of anxiety, by announcing some definite action on the part of those with whom the matter rests. But this we cannot do. The whole matter is in abeyance. The Old Colony Corporation have in no wise changed their purpose of putting the road through; neither has any difficulty been encountered in the progress of the project in our own State. But in Massachusetts the case is different, or rather in Fall River, the only place out of this State likely to be affected to any great extent by the change. Here, as was anticipated, the feeling of opposition is most intense, not so much in consequence of breaking the terminus of the road at that point, as the removal of the New York steamers from that city to our own. These boats have, and justly, too, been the pride of Fall River, as well as a source of considerable pecuniary advantage.

Under these circumstances, therefore, it is not strange that the citizens of that place should oppose, by every means in their power, the projected change. By recent accounts it appears that Hon. John H. Clifford has appeared before the legislative committee of Massachusetts, in behalf of the Fall River extension, and that he has stated that there were important questions of law to be settled, in regard to the notice to the parties interested, before the merits of the case were reached. He said that "the effect of the extension would be to build up interests in an adjoining State to the expense of those of our citizens." Four corporations, whose capital stock exceeded that of the petitioning corporation, have remonstrated against the measure.

Whatever may be the result of the present movement in this direction, our people have no reason to be disheartened. Should the Massachusetts Legislature refuse to grant the requisite change in the Old Colony corporation, or other and insurmountable obstacles be thrown in the way by the people of Fall River, we still have the consolation of knowing, that if the road is needed, as it undoubtedly is to advance the interests of our city, Newport and Fall River capital can build it. We are not yet reduced to such a strait of pauperism as to depend wholly upon a foreign corporation to do for us what a regard for our own interests demands should be done. Newport can build the road to the Fall River line, and from thence find ready means to accomplish the short distance between that terminus and the present one of the Old Colony road, and thus have what must inevitably come to pass sooner or later—the connection of our city with Boston by a continuous line of railroad, the unbounded selfishness of our Fall River neighbors to the contrary notwithstanding.

Our Fall River friends must bear in mind, that such a thing is possible as an opposition line of boats to connect New York with Boston, with Newport as the water terminus, in case the present project should be frustrated through their means. We daily, biding the action of the Massachusetts Legislature, have more to say upon this subject at a future time.

INTERESTING TO THE LADIES.—On Wednesday evening, a lady residing in Spring street, New York, presented her husband with two daughters, and was left by the attending physician in a comfortable condition. In the course of three hours thereafter, a ring was heard at the door, and under the impression that the doctor had returned to see his patient, the servant hastened to answer the summons. No one was to be seen in the neighborhood, but upon the steps was found a basket which contained two newly born male children, apparently twins. The lady, when informed of the circumstance, seemed well pleased, and at once adopted the little waifs, placing them in bed beside her own. The young travellers were fast asleep, and were comfortably wrapped in cozy embroidered flannels.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Supreme Court.

The Grand Jury returned the following indictments against John Q. Short:
1st, Assault with intent to kill.
2d, Burglary at Mr. Darg's house.
3d, Receiving stolen goods from the same house.
4th, Larceny from Wm. Brownell.
5th, Larceny of books from W. P. Sheffield.
6th, Breaking store of Julius Sayer.
7th, Burglary at house of Mrs. Cox.
8th, Breaking and entering Crown House and stealing.
9th, Receiving goods stolen from Jesse Gardner.
10th, Burglary from house of Catherine Norton.
11th, Breaking into the Atlantic House and stealing.
12th, Breaking into Atlantic House.
Also No. 13, Against John Hennessey, for bigamy.
14th and 15th, George Pell, burglary and receiving stolen goods at the store of George Bowen & Co.
16th, George O'Neil, assault upon Sarah A. Gregory.
17th, Thomas C. Allen, burning house at Coaster's Harbor.
18th, James H. Easton, assault with intent to steal.
19th, Peleg Cornell, arson.
20th, John Phillips, common nuisance.

They also upon their oaths, presented the County Jail for Newport County as unsafe, and requiring the immediate attention of the General Assembly. We learn that a copy of this presentation, duly attested by the Court, will be forwarded by our representatives to the General Assembly, next Monday, and we hope that it will be promptly acted upon by that Honorable body. The number of persons present at the reporting of the Grand Jury, was very large. They began gathering outside before four o'clock, but were not allowed to enter, excepting on business, until the Jury had been seated, and the prisoners were brought in. When the officers gave way, at half past five, the rush was frightful. To those already in the house, the noise of the ensuing crowd resembled the distant roar of the surf, but as it approached, the tramp of feet could be distinguished, and when it burst into the Court room, the clattering of feet, angry roaring of voices, and deep breathings of the excited throng, were terrific. After some moments elapsed, quiet was restored, and then the prisoners were arraigned. The first was Short, who replied in a loud and pert manner, when asked, "not guilty," to each of the indictments. Van Zandt and Rice appeared for him. As the other prisoners replied not guilty, and one after another were asked by the Court if they had counsel, the frequent replies of Gen. Van Zandt, "We appear here," gradually produced increasing laughter, until finally the whole audience was in a broad roar.

Saturday morning, James Fernandez Thurston was arraigned on an indictment for assault, and pleaded guilty. He was sentenced to imprisonment in Newport Jail for six weeks from that day, to pay all costs of prosecution and conviction, and to stand committed until sentence is complied with in all its parts.

John G. Short was then brought in, and the case opened to the Jury by the Attorney General pro tem, Mayor Cranston. After some little time in forming a Jury, the case proceeded.

In the case—indictment No. 4, Government v. Short, against the charges of burglary—No. 1, verdict guilty. No. 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7, Government entered Not pro. No. 7, the result same as in No. 2. No. 9, Not pro. No. 10, result same as No. 2. No. 11, Short pleaded guilty. No. 12, Not pro. No. 13, Henry pleaded guilty, and sentenced 1 year. The sentence of Short, was, on all the indictments, equivalent to 5 years. We are aware that ninetenths of our community think the sentence Short, but the Court acted upon the belief that a short term might reform—a consummation most devoutly to be desired—whereas a long sentence might have the opposite effect. The Court had the power to sentence for 20 years; but for reasons which undoubtedly appeared to them sufficient, placed the limit as above stated. And so passes from life, to all intents and purposes, John G. Short. What a benefit, with his talents, he might have been! What an injury he has been to the city, and more than all, to his wife and himself. "The way of the transgressor is hard," both to himself, and his innocent friends.

The Court adjourned to this morning at 9 o'clock, at which time the criminal docket will be taken up and the trials proceeded with. We acknowledge ourselves indebted to the courtesy of Mayor Cranston and Sheriff Lake, for facilities in making up this report.

Sons of Temperance Gathering.

Atlantic Division, No. 6, of T., held an open meeting, Friday evening, in their Hall, at which a select company of the friends of temperance were present, comprising a majority of the clergy of the city, and a number of our most respectable ladies and gentlemen. The music was by the Newport Antiquarian Association, and was well received, only that, considering the limited time, there was a little too much time occupied in this exercise. The same objectionable feature was noticed in the addresses, (with two or three exceptions) which, though excellent in themselves, lost much of their force in that by their ill-judged length they detracted from the variety always considered as one of the chief requisites of such a gathering.

Mrs. Leona Copeland presided at the Melodeon with her usual grace and tact. The speaking was by Rev. Messrs. Richards, Adams, Menden, Brooks and White, Benj. Mumford, Esq. and the "great gun" of James-town.

Had we space, it would be interesting, as well as gratifying, to give a synopsis of the remarks of each of these gentlemen. Suffice it to say, that the great question of Temperance was taken up and discussed in various bearings with an ability which ever characterizes the clergymen when they touch upon the subject, one so closely allied to their holy calling.

The audience went away well pleased with the evening's entertainment.

THIRTY-SIXTH CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.

SENATE.

A memorial from the New York Chamber of Commerce, relative to damages sustained by vessels at sea, was presented by Mr. Seward (Rep., N. Y.). Mr. Sumner (Rep., Mass.) moved an inquiry from the President in regard to the occupation of one of the islands in the West India by American citizens. Adopted. Mr. Pugh (Dem., Ohio) reported a bill preventing assigners locating lands under bounty land warrants, which was passed. Mr. Hale's (Rep., N. H.) resolution in relation to the conduct of Peru in carrying out treaty stipulations, was adopted. Mr. Brown (Dem., Miss.) introduced a bill to punish offenses against slave property in Kansas. Mr. Mallory (Dem., Fla.) reported a joint resolution authorizing Captains Hudson and Sands to accept certain testimonials from Great Britain, which was adopted. Mr. Chandler (Rep., Mich.) made an ineffectual effort to have the St. Clair Plats improving bill taken up. The bill relative to arms and Superintendents of Armories, was taken up, debated, and postponed. The District of Columbia Bank Note bill was then taken up, debated, and amended somewhat, when the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

A Message was received from the President, including memorials from Kansas and Nebraska on the eastern slope of the Rocky Mountains, asking for legislation in their behalf. On motion of John Cochrane (Dem., N. Y.) accommodations in the galleries were provided for the New York Seventh Regiment, and other regiments visiting Washington. After some opposition, the House proceeded to vote for a Printer. The first vote stood: For Mr. Defrees, 83; Mr. Glossbrenner, 86; scattering, 10; necessary to a choice, 90. The second: For Mr. Defrees, 77; Mr. Glossbrenner, 87; Mr. Edwards Ball of Ohio, 9; scattering, 7; necessary to a choice, 91. Mr. Kilgore (Rep., Ind.) then withdrew the name of Mr. Defrees, and Mr. Dawes (Rep., Mass.) nominated Samuel Bowles of Massachusetts. The next vote stood: For Mr. Glossbrenner, 81; Mr. Defrees, 2; Mr. Bowles, 67; Messrs. Gales & Senter, 2; Mr. Mitchell, 9; remainder scattering; necessary to a choice, 89. The House again voted as follows: For Mr. Ball, 88; Mr. Glossbrenner, 84; scattering, 5; necessary to a choice, 89. The House then adjourned.

DISASTERS AT SEA.

PARTICULARS OF THE CAPTURE OF TETUAN.

GREAT REJOICING IN SPAIN.

Boston, Feb. 24.—The royal mail steamship Europa, from Liverpool via Halifax, arrived at 7 o'clock this morning. The screw steamer John Bell, from Glasgow for New York, has put back to Queens-town, having been thirty-two days out with her mainmast and a fan of her propeller broken. She had five cabin, and ten steerage passengers, and a general cargo. She left Glasgow on the 4th of January.

The ship Jane E. Walsh, of Yarmouth, from Liverpool for Havana, with a cargo of coal, foundered at sea January 31st, lat 47° N, lon 9° W—crew saved.

The ship Guy Mannerling, Cap. Holland, from Liverpool for New York, put back February 7, having shipped a heavy sea, and received some damage.

Spain.

The Gibraltar Chronicle of Feb. 4, says: "It was reported by a person who left Tetuan yesterday evening, that skirmishing was going on the whole of yesterday, and that the Spanish artillery was shelling the Moorish batteries." "The Spanish troops were all the port of Martin discharging shot, shell, powder, provisions, etc., for the use of the army."

Feb. 2.—We have not yet received any account from the Spanish camp of the action of Jan. 31st. "The Hoga Suelto, off Algiers, speaks of it as the most serious affair in which the Spanish troops have yet been engaged."

Some stir has been noticed in the Moorish camp, and it was rumored that another brother of the Sultan had arrived with a reinforcement of 20,000 cavalry.

Madrid, Feb. 7.—Tetuan has been taken by the Spaniards, after a little, which was fought on the 4th. Eight hundred large tents, forming the fine encampment of the enemy, the artillery, camels, and all the other equipment of the Moorish army, have been taken. The brothers of the Emperor took to flight. A summons having been transmitted to the enemy to surrender Tetuan within 24 hours, a deputation from the city came in to the Spanish camp to beg for mercy, as the Mussulmans had begun to pillage and a slaughter in the town.

The division of Gen. Rios entered the place without opposition and was received with manifestations of joy.

Immense popular rejoicings are taking place at Madrid, which is splendidly illuminated. The acclamations of delight are general, and great preparations are being made for public feasts.

The Action on the 31st.

The Moors it appears began the action at 11 in the morning by a fierce attack on the Spanish advance posts. They are said to have returned with increased fury to the attack.

They closed with the Spanish battalions, and in the hand to hand combat which ensued were at last defeated, though they obstinately disputed every foot of ground.

In a cavalry charge ordered by Gen. Galiano, four squadrons found their return intercepted by a body of 2000 Moorish horse, and had to cut their way through.

In this they were aided by two other squadrons sent to their support. Gen. Prim, with six battalions, stormed a height commanding the field, but had to charge four times with the bayonet before he could gain the position.

It was decided to hold the ground thus taken, and military was sent up to General Prim in the course of the night. The loss on the Spanish side is reported as considerable, but the number is not given.

We hear that a transport arrived this morning at Algiers with twenty-seven officers and two hundred and fifty rank file wounded.

Italy.

A letter from Milan says:—We continue to receive more and more afflicting news from Venetia. They have sent off to the fortresses of Moravia and the Danube two trains, one of 80 and the other of 100 persons, all in chains, and who had been arrested on the suspicion of feeling love for their country.

These individuals have not undergone any form of trial. Fresh arrests are being made in all the towns of Venetia. These towns are still deserted. Every day acts of violence are committed.

They persist in their system of provocation in order to force the people to desert, by which they would have a pretext for venting their rage on every one.

Died.

In this city, 26th inst., after a short illness, Mrs. Lucretia Littlefield, wife of Capt. Nathaniel Littlefield, aged 71 years, six months and 23 days.

In life she was much respected. In death she is much lamented. Funeral from her late residence, corner of Mill and Spring streets, Tuesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. Relatives and friends are invited to attend without further notice.

FOUSEL'S PABULUM VITE.

THE GREAT FRENCH REMEDY, for the speedy and permanent cure of CONSUMPTION, BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, COLDS, and ALL PULMONARY DISEASES. This celebrated specific is now universally acknowledged to be infinitely superior to all other preparations for the cure of Pulmonary Disease, both from its innocent nature and its most astonishing curative properties; it being the only remedy known that will arrest the development of Tubercles in the Lungs, or restore the vital functions of the pulmonary organs to their normal condition. Its invaluable properties have obtained for it the highest commendations and praise from some of the most eminent physicians and chemists in the country; while the best and surest proofs of its merits are afforded by the numerous testimonials of its great efficacy in conquering disease, which are constantly received from our most respectable citizens. Luvulins in all stages of pulmonary disease should not fail to give it a trial, as it can be administered to the most delicate and feeble with perfect safety and certain relief; and we herewith insert a few testimonials for their encouragement, selected from hundreds of like communications.

Certificate of Dr. A. A. HAYES, in reference to the unequalled virtues of this great discovery. This preparation, by chemical analysis, was proved to be free from opium or any of its compounds; nor were any of the alkaloids present. It does not contain any mercurial or mineral substance, but consists wholly of volatile, diffusible agents, which afford vapors freely at a moderate temperature. Most of the substances present are efficiently used in alleviating pulmonary disease; but the device by which they are combined is new and original, and adapts the compound to inhalation, or other modes of administration.

Respectfully,
A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer,
10 Boylston Street, Boston, Dec. 19, 1857.
TESTIMONIAL from the Assistant Superintendent of Health:

Boston, Oct. 4, 1859.
Sir:—It affords me great pleasure in recommending to those troubled with Pulmonary Complaints the use of Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ; and my own experience has shown that for Coughs and Colds it possesses qualities of great merit, and I would most cheerfully recommend it to those troubled with the above complaints, so common to our climate. Respectfully yours,
(Signed) DANIEL B. CURTIS,
F. J. LAFORET, Esq.,
Dear Sir:—This may certify that I have used Fousel's Pabulum Vitæ, and I consider it the best article that I have ever used for pulmonary complaints. My wife has used it for severe colds, and its effect was magical; and I have no objection to your referring in any way to me that you deem expedient. I have given the above named a fair trial, and with confidence advise all that are afflicted with colds or pulmonary complaints to try it.
